Designing a Women's Ministry

Part One: Laying the Foundation

Course Description:

As women, we have a unique place in God's redemptive plan. A well-organized, biblically-centered women's ministry in the local church is a significant way to nurture and grow the believer, as well as reach our world for Christ. In this class, we will consider how to ascertain God's plan for your ministry, the importance of godly leadership and how to develop a purposeful ministry.

Course Objectives:

This course will

- Define why women's ministry is necessary
- Help you create a philosophy of ministry
- Discuss how to select a team of godly leaders to build the program
