

Designing A Women's Ministry: PART 2

by design ministries
PREVIEW

YOU WERE CREATED
FOR A PURPOSE
WITH A UNIQUE DESIGN
BY THE ULTIMATE CREATOR

Designing a Women's Ministry Part Two: Developing a Plan

Course Description:

Once you clarify vision and purpose and lay out a foundational plan, what's next? In order for a ministry to grow and thrive, attention must be given to determining the specific needs of your group.

Course Objectives:

This course will

- Define generational differences in women
- Explore individual congregational needs
- Help you create an assessment plan for your church needs
- Explore the concept of the Women's Ministry Umbrella

Course Overview:

1. Building on the foundation of the philosophy
2. Who are We Ministering to?
3. Looking at Generational Differences
4. What are Their Specific Needs?
5. How Can These Needs be Met Through Women's Ministries?
6. Meeting the Needs of Your People
7. Promoting the Ministry

Bibliography

Adams, Chris. Women Reaching Women. Lifeway Press, 1997.

Briscoe, Jill, Laurie McIntyre, and Beth Severson. Designing Effective Women's Ministries. Zondervan, 1995.

Maxwell, John. Developing the Leader Within You. Thos. Nelson, 1993.

Maxwell, John. Developing the Leaders Around You. Thos. Nelson, 1995.

Maxwell, John. The 17 Indisputable Laws of Teamwork. Thos. Nelson, 2001.

Porter, Carol and Mike Hamel. Women's Ministry Handbook. Victor Books, 1992.

PREVIEW